Hayden joined LPHS as an Associate in 2022, representing clients from a diverse set of industries in a variety of different complex disputes. He practices in state and federal courts on behalf of plaintiffs and defendants, handling all phases of litigation from pre-suit case development through trial and appeal. Hayden tailors his approach to each case, creating a strategy that fits the client's unique business needs and desired outcomes. His work at LPHS has covered the spectrum of commercial litigation, including breaches of contract, fraud, antitrust, breaches of fiduciary duty, and business partnership disputes.

Outside of the courtroom, Hayden is committed to serving the DFW community as a member of the boards of directors for Ability Connection and the Ferguson Road Initiative. In his downtime, Hayden loves archery and working on home renovation projects way beyond his actual capabilities. Hayden currently lives in Dallas with his wife and their dog, Copper. Before joining LPHS, he worked as an associate at Vinson & Elkins LLP in Dallas.

EDUCATION
