Leo is a senior associate who regularly appears in state and federal courts across the country. He represents both plaintiffs and defendants in all phases of complex and high-stakes cases, from inception through trial. His practice spans the full spectrum of commercial litigation, including breaches of contract, intellectual property disputes, and violations of fiduciary duties. He has successfully litigated these multimillion-dollar cases and prides himself on his aggressive and creative advocacy on behalf of his clients.

Leo has been repeatedly recognized as part of the next generation of leading trial lawyers, including as "One to Watch" by Best Lawyers. He was also a member of the Dallas Association of Young Lawyers' 2023 Leadership Class and currently serves on the Young Professional Council for the Dallas Court Appointed Special Advocates.

Leo earned both his B.A. and J.D. from the University of Pennsylvania. While in law school, he won the Noyes E. Leech Award for the highest achievement in international law and was the U.S. Champion and World Runner-Up at the 2016 Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition. After law school, Leo worked as an associate at a large international law firm in New York City. He then moved to Dallas to clerk for the Honorable Chief Judge Barbara M. G. Lynn of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas.

Leo lives in East Dallas with his partner Danielle and their Siberian Husky named Ori. They spend their weekends exploring Dallas's constantly growing variety of restaurants and lounges. Leo also actively plays golf, tennis, and padel and is an avid poker player.
